In re Terrorist Attack on September 11, 2001, 03 MDL 1570 (RCC) (all cases)

Dear Judge Casey:

I write to report to Your Honor, and, by copy, to J. Michael McMahon, Esquire, Clerk of Court, that pursuant to the Court's Case Management Order No. 1 of March 3, 2004, my firm has been able to contact all attorneys who, we understand, represent clients in the above matters. We have received responses from all but a handful of them, and we have been able to gather email addresses from most of them. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a list of email addresses (and other contact information) for attorneys participating in one or more of the consolidated or related cases.

The following comments explain why email addresses for some attorneys do not appear on the Exhibit A list.

a. No further involvement. The following attorneys, offices, and firms have communicated to us that they are no longer actively involved in these matters, and asked to be removed from the list: (1) attorneys of the firm of Armstrong, Donohue, Ceppos & Vaughn, of Rockville, Maryland; (2) George R. Blakey, Esq., of Notre Dame Law School, Indiana; (3) attorneys in the Washington, D.C., Office of King & Spalding—but not attorneys in the New York City Office; (4) attorneys in the Washington, D.C., Office of Shearman & Sterling LLP—but not attorneys in the

New York City Office; (5) attorneys of the firm of Stein, Mitchell & Mezines LLP, of Washington, D.C.; and (6) attorneys of the firm of Stetler and Duffy Ltd., of Chicago, Illinois.

b. Decline to receive materials in these matters. My firm has received telephone calls from (1) the Embassy of Pakistan, Washington, D.C. (listed as the address for the Iranian Interests Section and various Iranian defendants); and (2) the Algerian Embassy, Washington, D.C. (listed as the address for the Iraqi Interests Section and various Iraqi defendants). Personnel in both embassies stated that they no longer receive communications and filings in these cases, and requested us to stop delivering them.

c. Responding attorney who declined to give email address. Michael McManus, Esq., of Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, informed my firm that he declined to give us an email address, on the grounds that the defendant whom he represents has yet to be served.¹ We do include an email address for him in Exhibit A, for the sake of completeness, but wish to inform the Court that we obtained it from the website maintained by that firm.

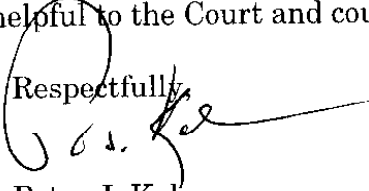

d. Attorneys from whom we have not yet received information. As the Court is aware, we sent three facsimile messages to every attorney understood to be participating in these matters. Yesterday, we followed up with telephone calls to all attorneys from whom we had not yet received any communication. We still have not received information from the following attorneys and firms: (1) Michael Barasch, Esq., and James P. McGarry, Esq., of Barasch McGarry Salzman Penson & Lim, of New York City; (2) Roger Simmons, Esq., and Victor Cretella, Esq., of Gordon & Simmons, of Frederick, Maryland; and (3) Guy Molinari, Esq., and John D'Amato, Esq., of Russo, Scamardella & D'Amato PC, of Staten Island, New York.

¹ We note in passing that many attorneys (including the undersigned) take the position that their clients have not yet been served. We understand that agreement to be included in Exhibit A and other service lists in these matters is not a waiver of that position.

The Honorable Richard C. Casey

We hope that this submission proves helpful to the Court and counsel.

Respectfully,

Peter J. Kahn
